

Let's Get Together for a Great Cause!

When: Saturday, February 22, 2025

7:00 pm - ?

Where: Josh and Jenna's house

3312 Main Street, Minneapolis, MN 55404

What: If you share our belief that it is up to us to make this world a better place, you know we can't wait for someone else to do it. That's why we would like you to be aware of some of the really good work being done in the community that has become an important cause for us.

The fun: Bring your favorite bottle of wine or other beverage to share if you'd like. Otherwise, just bring yourself and your sparkling personality.

The good work: At about 7:30, Matt Halley, President of Accola, will give a quick introduction to the great social justice work being done by Accola. We won't be shy about asking for your support in whatever form you are able (no pressure — if you can't help now, no problem). That's it.

Some background on Accola:

Accola welcomes neighbors, cultivates community, and fosters justice by responding boldly to the needs of the time. We listen to what people share, imagine, and need to advance a more just and equitable society. This newly independent nonprofit organization is influenced by the spirit of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet.

Our programs – Learning In Style School, Sarah's . . . an Oasis for Women, and Wisdom Ways Center for Spirituality – respond nimbly to issues facing our communities. Our transformative programs improve opportunity for immigrants through education; provide safe and dignified housing for women as they heal from trauma; and help connect people's spirituality with social justice action.

Please join us to learn more about these vital programs!

For more information, check out the Accola website at accolamn.org

Or, give us a call if you have questions! 651-690-7026

